

EXHIBIT AND SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

2025 ANVC CONFERENCE

NOVEMBER 13 - 15 | WASHINGTON DC

AN INVITATION TO JOIN US

On behalf of the Association of Neurovascular Clinicians (ANVC), I invite you to join us at our 2025 Annual Conference in Washington DC. Here you will have an incredible opportunity to meet, liaise with and promote your products to stroke care experts, including advanced care providers, prescribers, departmental directors, line managers, stroke coordinators, and bedside nurses. Our conference provides state-of-the-science evidence-based practice, research and educational updates on topics spanning the continuum of stroke care.

OUR PURPOSE

The ANVC is an international organization dedicated to creating expert neurovascular care services, led by evidence-empowered clinicians who fully support the holistic needs of patients and their families. We enhance and empower our members with specialist knowledge and skills in stroke care, because stroke patients deserve nothing less.

OUR CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

2025 will mark our 5th annual conference, and we will celebrate with our biggest conference yet. In response to requests, we have expanded our program to 2.5 days, which gives you, our sponsors, even more opportunity to meet with our attendees and promote your products.

We are expecting over 250 stroke clinicians, with the majority being prescribers, managers, and/or purchase decision makers. Most of our attendees have the ability and the responsibility of instigating new care regimes, pathways and devices, as well as managing a diverse range of health care systems. They are the clinicians working at the coal face of stroke care, they are the educators, managers and coordinators, they are the policy makers and the change-agents. They are your ideal audience.

Feedback from our 2024 conference has been tremendously positive, from members and vendors alike. Vendors who were with us in Houston will know of the crowds and the energy in the exhibit hall and the valuable connections that were made.

WE VALUE YOU

The ANVC values our relationships with our industry sponsors. We have listened to your feedback, and we have instigated several exciting changes to make your promotional opportunities even more valuable this year, including improved booth choices, better traffic flow and upgraded sponsorship packages. Our commitment to you is noteworthy product exposure, enhanced visibility, and exclusive sponsorship opportunities.

Thank you for your commitment to acute neurovascular care and we look forward to partnering with you in 2025.

Sincerely,

Skye Coote

The conference gets better every year

This was THE best stroke conference I have ever attended! I will be back

Love this conference. Always walk away with ideas to improve my practice and patient care

Our attendees also had positive feedback about our exhibitors and sponsors:

I learned a lot from the reps that were at the conference with all the advancement happening in our industry

It was nice to touch base with the reps to see what we can incorporate in our health systems to better the care we provide for our patients
