

ENDORSEMENT POLICY AND APPLICATION FORM
FOR EXTERNAL USE
Reviewed: 07/2024	Approved Date: 07/2024

Purpose

To describe the process by which the Association of Neurovascular Clinicians (ANVC) may be requested provide formal endorsement of a society, program or product.

Objective

The ANVC is committed to promoting interprofessional education and the exchange of scientific information to support the needs of neurovascular healthcare professionals. The ANVC may therefore endorse interdisciplinary societies and organizations, neurovascular meetings, educational activities, or products that are consistent with these goals and our stated mission and values.

Scope

This policy applies to any member, individual or organization/society interested in seeking endorsement from the ANVC.

Examples include (but are not limited to):

- Educational activities organized by professional organizations who may seek local or national endorsement
- International collaboration on educational courses or activities

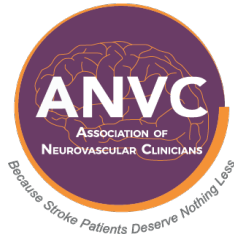

Policy

All applications must be submitted to the ANVC Board of Directors via info@anvc.org. The Board will consider all requests based on the following criteria and reserves the right to reject any proposal that does not conform to the standards, principles and ethics of the ANVC. A majority of the Board is required to approve all submissions.

1. Is the educational and scientific value consistent with the ANVC mission and values?
2. Is the ANVC the appropriate organization to provide this endorsement?
3. Absence of promotional content

All applications must contain the following information

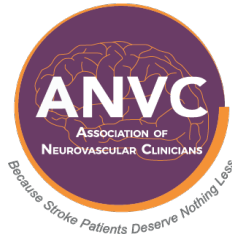

- Submission title and abstract (max. 250 words)
- Societal, program or product significance, including reason for endorsement request
- References as appropriate

Approval

Approval will be provided in writing, along with an ANVC logo for inclusion on promotional materials. The use of the ANVC logo prior to approval is strictly prohibited.

The ANVC will promote the endorsed meeting, organization, product on the ANVC website and through the ANVC social media pages.

Application for ANVC Endorsement
